

Women's housing land, and property rights in Tunisia and Libya

*This is not a matter of what you or I want.
This is a matter of Housing, Land and Property rights.*

Women's housing,
land, and property rights in Tunisia

“ I, as a Tunisian woman,
have the right to own property
and improve my social status. ”

Women strengthen family ties,
fight for girls' rights to pursue education,
and try as much as possible to break the cycle
that determines the path of the Tunisian girl.

*This is not a matter of what you or I want.
This is a matter of Housing, Land and Property rights.*

Women's housing,
land, and property rights in Tunisia

“ I am a Tunisian citizen,
I contribute to the growth of my country,
and I carry out my civic duties...
Therefore, I am entitled to claim my right
to adequate housing,
land, and property. ”

Enhancing women's access to land,
housing, and property is a catalyst
for the economic development of societies.

*This is not a matter of what you or I want.
This is a matter of Housing, Land and Property rights.*

Women's housing,
land, and property rights in Tunisia

“ As a woman
who owns property,
I have my wealth, my power,
and my sovereignty. ”

Having the exclusive right to access,
enjoy, and manage her property,
the Tunisian woman has the potential to gain wealth,
power, and independence.

*This is not a matter of what you or I want.
This is a matter of Housing, Land and Property rights.*

Women's housing,
land, and property rights in Tunisia

“ I am a woman;
I have an undeniable
right to inherit. ”

Inheritance represents the values
and priorities of Tunisian women
and preserves their identity.

It serves as a foundation for the development
of local economies, education, and livelihoods.

*This is not a matter of what you or I want.
This is a matter of Housing, Land and Property rights.*

Women's housing,
land, and property rights in Tunisia

“ Having equal rights to men,
women should not stand down in pursuing economic empowerment. ”

Access to bank loans, mortgages,
and other forms of financial credit is essential to the empowerment of Tunisian women.

*This is not a matter of what you or I want.
This is a matter of Housing, Land and Property rights.*

Women's housing,
land, and property rights in Libya

“ I, as a Libyan woman,
have the right to own property
and improve my social status. ”

Women strengthen family ties,
fight for girls' rights to pursue education,
and try as much as possible to break the cycle
that determines the path of the Libyan girl.

*This is not a matter of what you or I want.
This is a matter of Housing, Land and Property rights.*

Women's housing,
land, and property rights in Libya

“ I am a Libyan citizen,
I contribute to the growth of my country,
and I carry out my civic duties...
Therefore, I am entitled to claim my right
to adequate housing,
land, and property. ”

Enhancing women's access to land,
housing, and property is a catalyst
for the economic development of societies.

*This is not a matter of what you or I want.
This is a matter of Housing, Land and Property rights.*

Women's housing,
land, and property rights in Libya

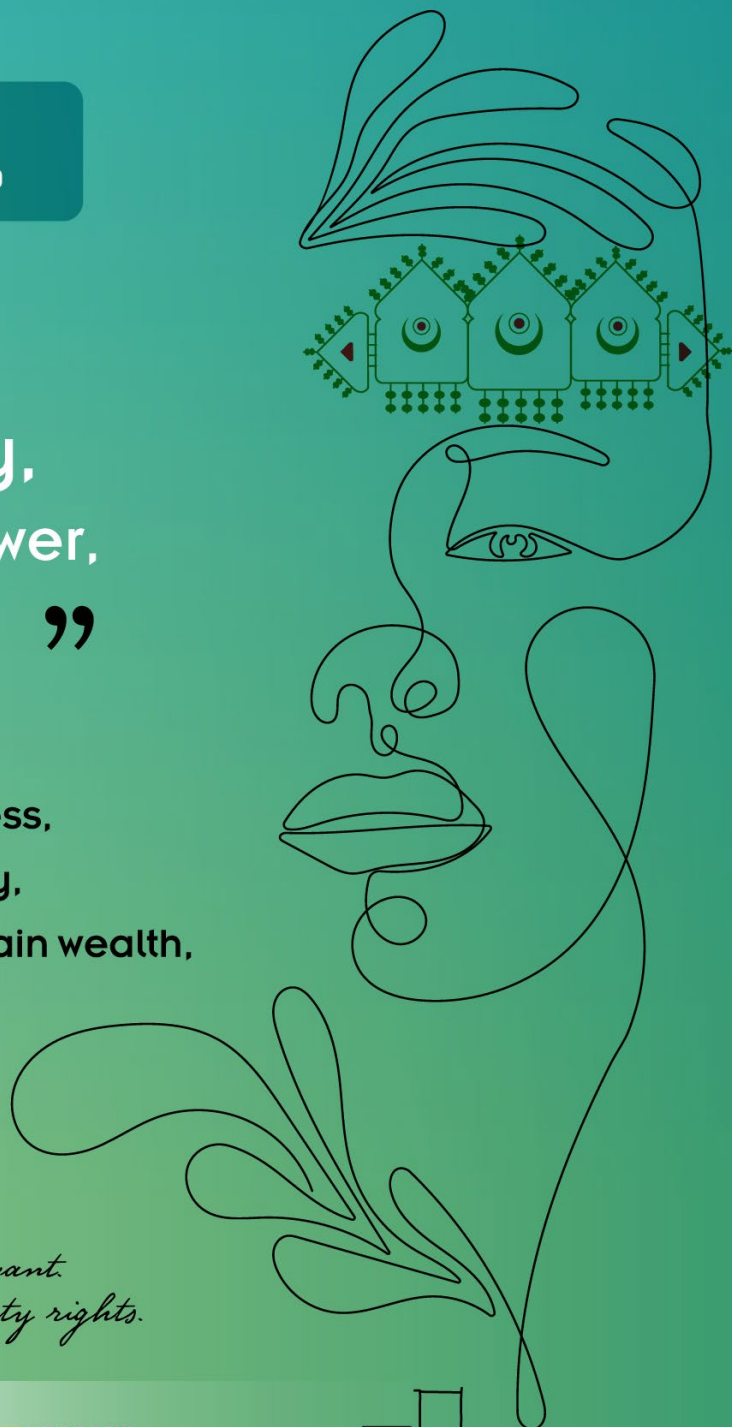

“ As a woman
who owns property,
I have my wealth, my power,
and my sovereignty. ”

Having the exclusive right to access,
enjoy, and manage her property,
the Libyan woman has the potential to gain wealth,
power, and independence.

*This is not a matter of what you or I want.
This is a matter of Housing, Land and Property rights.*

Women's housing,
land, and property rights in Libya

“ I am a woman;
I have an undeniable
right to inherit. ”

Inheritance represents the values
and priorities of Libyan women
and preserves their identity.

It serves as a foundation for the development
of local economies, education, and livelihoods.

*This is not a matter of what you or I want.
This is a matter of Housing, Land and Property rights.*

