

A group of women and children are walking along a dirt path in a rural village. In the background, there are simple, single-story houses with red brick walls and white window frames. The women are dressed in traditional African attire, including colorful patterned skirts and headwraps. One woman in the foreground is wearing a white button-down shirt and a yellow patterned skirt. A young child in a yellow t-shirt is walking in the center. The scene is set outdoors with trees and a clear sky.
